WESTERN UNION TO PENSION EMPLOYEES

Will Forestall Workmen's Compulsory Compensation Laws and Start Pension and Insurance System of Their Own

Recently the Western Union Telegraph Company announced to its employees a provisional pension plan guaranteeing a certain income to faithful employees having a certain term of service. President Vail has just issued an additional announcement to the effect that commencing Jan. 1, 1913, a permanent plan will be inaugurated providing not only for pensions, but also extending to all employees benefits covering sickness and disability from accident and in addition thereto, a life insurance for all employees having relatives dependent upon them. In case of death by accident occurring in the performance of work for the company, employees having dependent relatives will receive an insurance in the sum of three years wages, not in excess of a total amount of $5,000 and payable to dependent relatives. Employees who have been five years in the company's service will be entitled to insurance against death in varying sums not exceeding $2,000, such insurance to be paid to dependent relatives. The disability insurance covers accidental injury in the performance of work for the company, or disability due to sickness or injury during employment and while not in the performance of work for the company and the amounts to be paid in case of accident or sickness may be received by employees who have been in the service from two years upward, varying between full pay for four weeks and half pay for nine weeks, which applies to the employees who have been in the service between two and five years, up to full pay for thirteen weeks and half pay until able to earn a livelihood not exceeding, in the case of accident, six years in all. The pension benefits apply to male employees sixty years of age and female employees fifty-five years of age who have been twenty or more years in the service, but for those employees who have been twenty-five years or more in the company's employ the pension is made applicable to male employees of fifty-five years or female employees fifty years of age. Any employee who has been in the company's service thirty or more years may receive the pension benefits. President Vail first made mention of the pension plan last March, that being the first step in the effort of the Western Union company to give expression to the company's appreciation of loyal and efficient service of employees and the above designated new plan secures to the 30,000 employees of this company from January 1st next, a much more comprehensive and liberal arrangement in regard to benefits than originally announced and one that will greatly enhance the value of employment with this company.

Found His Lost Horses

Fred Thompson picked up two of his horses Monday which had been missing from his Oak Creek range for a year. The horses were in the possession of a man in the employ of the L. J. Smith Construction company who claimed that he bought them at Seligman of David James. One of the horses was practically ruined, the other was in bad condition. Mr. Thompson took possession of the team.

Want to Cancel Stamps

Uncle Jimmy Jones, one of the old time wheel horses of the democratic party, has a petition out for the Flagstaff postoffice. Among others we have heard named as candidates or prospective candidates are: J. L. Byrnes, John Francis, George Fleming and E. A. Brown.

The Flagstaff office will assume some proportions when the parcel post is added after January 1st, including the big increase of population.

Flagged Train With Shirt

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at Babbitt Bros.

"Robbing" the Dining Room to "Pay" the Kitchen

NO wonder butter is so high. Particular women who are loath to use lard or cooking butter in their cakes and fine pastry, use table butter. With butter at the price you have to pay for it, that's downright extravagance. Cottolene is just as good as butter for pastry; for frying, it is better. And Cottolene costs no more than lard. Moreover, is richer, and two-thirds of a pound of it will go as far as a full pound of butter or lard.

Cottolene

And lard and Cottolene are not to be mentioned in the same breath, for Cottolene is a vegetable product, healthful, always safe — and makes digestible, rich, but never greasy food.

Remember, Cottolene is better than butter, better than lard — and much more economical.

Made only by
THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

TRY THIS RECIPE:

Fried Oysters
Use large oysters; parboil a moment to dry out some of the juice to prevent spattering during the frying. Lay them in seasoned bread crumbs, beaten egg and again in bread crumbs, then brown a few at a time in deep, smoking-hot Cottolene.
